Sunset Properties Honors Top Housekeeping Contractor for 2009

Sunset Beach, North Carolina – October 2009/Sunset Properties/Press Release – Sunset Properties, a leading professional vacation rental and sales firm headquartered in Sunset Beach, North Carolina is pleased to announce that Nancy Gibson won the grand prize of a 40" HDTV at its Housekeeper Appreciation Event this past weekend.

The event was held to honor the more than 170 cleaning contractors that work with the company during the year. Rain cancelled some family activities that were planned for the day, but the company was still able to hold a cookout at Barts' BBQ for the attendees. Special recognition was given to the top 25 contractors from this past summer, and door prizes were given as well.

Gibson's name was selected for the grand prize from a drawing that included each of the top 25 contractors for 2009. Ron Watts, Sunset Properties President, and Phyllis Conner, Sunset Properties Housekeeping Supervisor, presented certificates and special shirts to each of the top contractors before the grand prize drawing.

"We thank each of our contractors for their help getting the rental homes ready for our guests this past summer," said Watts. "We're fortunate to work with individuals that care about getting the homes as prepared as possible for the next guest. This event was one way to thank each of them for their efforts."
